Sessions: Thursday Evenings, Beginning Sept. 3
Time: 7:30 – 9:15 p.m.

Location: Holy Cross Parish Hall

CONTACTS: Cindy Durham (770) 938-6511 or cindy_durham@bellsouth.net, Barbara Gerlach (770)
939-6809 or Kathy Szabo (770) 296-1809

What You Will Do

Learn God's marvelous plan of salvation and see how your faith story fits into "His-story."

Read the 14 narrative books of the Bible – the ones that tell the story – in chronological order.

Examine key Old Testament passages in light of their fulfillment in Christ.

Learn how Catholic Tradition views the biblical narrative and how to use the Catechism of the Catholic Church as a reference.

Encourage one another as you learn together how God's Word applies to your lives.

Discover the covenants God made with humanity and how these covenants led up to the establishment of the Church.

What Parishioners Want You to Hear

From GABRIELA PROBST: Jeff Cavins' speaking style is engaging and easy to understand without being condescending in any way. I would highly recommend this.

From CAROLINE CAMICK: My faith becomes more and more in depth with such deep understanding of scripture and in the context of the Catholic Faith. I am able to look at my own spiritual growth more objectively because I know the Israelites' journey so well that I can now compare it to my own tendencies and failings.

From PHYLLIS JEAN McNEIL: I've grown spiritually since beginning this study. I look forward each week to being reminded of the many ways God deals with His people – His love for His creation, His patience and most of all His redemptive grace.

"All Sacred Scripture is but one book, and this one book is Christ, because all divine Scripture speaks of Christ, and all divine Scripture is fulfilled in Christ." (Catechism of the Catholic Church)
